SUMMERY

My book title is Dinosaurs Before Dark. The story takes place in the time of the dinosaurs. The main characters are Jack and Annie. The problem in the story is that Jack and Annie go to the time of the dinosaurs and need to make it home by dark. The first main event that happened is that Jack and Annie find a tree house and take themselves to the time of the dinosaurs. The second main event is that they explore the dinosaurs without getting noticed. The third main event is when Jack and Annie get a ride on a dinosaur. The story ended when Jack and Annie get home safely. The theme is Cooperation.

STEP INSIDE

I am the character Annie. I am going to tell you about my adventure when me and my brother, Jack went to the time of the dinosaurs. It all started when I saw a flash of light. I woke up Jack and we went to explore the mysterious light. We found a tree house and went up the ladder. My brother found a book about dinosaurs and flipped it open. He felt a picture and wished that he could see a dinosaur. Then, we felt the tree house spinning. Before we knew it, we caught sight of a dinosaur! We headed down the ladder. We explored the dinosaurs for a little bit. Soon, we figured that it was time to go home. We raced to the tree house. Just as we climbed in the tree house, Jack realized that he forgot his backpack on the hill, and we needed the Pennsylvania book to get home. Jack bolted down the ladder and got his backpack. As he got ready to head to the tree house, a T-Rex separated me and Jack. Jack hid until it was safe to come out. He bolted down the hill and scrambled into the tree house. We wished to go home, and we felt the tree house spinning again and before we knew it, we were home. That is the story of my adventure of the dinosaurs.

Accept What Happened In the Past !!!

SUMMARY

I am reading the book The Tiger Rising. It's a sad story which is also beautiful at the same time. It was truly a gem. Even if it was hauntingly sad. This is the book I will be summarizing.

This quiet but haunting story takes place at the Kentucky Star, which is a motel in Florida. This motel is owned by Beauchamp. Beauchamp says he's rich but he just wants to show off. The Kentucky Star isn't a very luxury motel. In fact, it looks very dirty.

The 4 main characters are: Rob, who's the boy who has a rash that he somehow knows is never going to heal. Sistine, the girl who is quite rough and is Rob's best friend. The tiger, who's a tiger (obviously) that Sistine and Rob try to free. Willie May, she's the housekeeper of the Kentucky Star.

The problem in this great book is that Sistine and Rob have to free the tiger, but after they freed the tiger Rob's dad kills it. Rob's mom died and he is determined not to cry. But he doesn't express his feelings which makes things harder.

The first main event that happened is that Rob finds a TIGER that was captured in the forest that is near the Kentucky Star which Beauchamp says he owns. That's why this story was written. Rob really likes this tiger but it wasn't him who wanted to free the tiger. It was Sistine.

The second main event that happened is that Rob meets Sistine. Sistine is Rob's best friend. She's Rob's partner in freeing the tiger. Sistine is quite rough.

The third main event that happened is that Rob has a really bad rash that he somehow knows is never going to heal. The rash is how can stay home and free the tiger with Sistine.

The story ended when the tiger was killed by Rob's father. Rob, for the first time in a long time, cried.

The theme in this sad but beautiful story is acceptance

STEP INSIDE

Hello, I am going to be Sistine, in the story The Tiger Rising.

Why is Rob always following me and being so quiet? Why was he called to the office? I really don't want to sit next to Rob but I have to. What "thing" is he going to show me? Rob found tiger in the woods how did it get there? I want Rob to free the tiger but why doesn't he want to? But he does have a point. We don't have the keys. The next day I was pulled over by Rob again to free the tiger. I thought it was worthless because we didn't have the keys. Then he told me he had the keys. I asked where he got them and he said he got them from Beauchamp. Beauchamp told him to feed the tiger everyday. I told Did that he was scared of the tiger. I was so sad that the tiger got killed after we freed it. I said it was my fault because I wanted to free the tiger in the first place. Rib said it was okay and that's how we became best friends.

The setting is in a haunted castle.

The first scene is when Jack, Annie, and Teddy is in a village and goes to the haunted castle.

The second scene is when they found out that there are ghosts living in the castle.

The third scene is when the ghosts tell Jack, Annie, and Teddy to go to a crow cave and get a crystal.

The next scene is when Teddy uses a magic spell to change them into crows.

The story ended when Jack and Annie got the crystal. Then Jack, Annie, and teddy finds that the ghosts are kids.

STEP INSIDE

Hi. Im Annie from Frog Creek Pennsylvania. Reticently, Jack, Teddy, and I wen on a journey to a haunted castle. It was really scary. Let me tell you about our journey.

Once we got out of the tree house, we found ourselves in a village. We asked them where the castle was and a lot of people and kids were scared when we asked them. A maid who used to work there. When we went to the castle, we saw some ghosts. We were so scared. But then we figured they were kids, and one dog.

Teddy used a magic spell to turn us into crows. A girl that was a ghost told us we needed to find a crystal. The crystal was in a cave that was graded by crows. The cave belonged to a crow king that was half crow and half human. Teddy distracted the guard while Jack and me went in to snatch the crystal. Once we grabbed it, we hurried back to the castle.

Once we were back, we tried to find teddy. But all we could find was his magic wand. I made up a rhyme to change us back to humans. Then a big black cloud came and into the castle. We were surrounded by crows. Then in front of our very eyes was the crow king. But we defeated him. And teddy came back. We changed him into a human and put the crystal back. Then we headed home.
